

	Session	Location
Day 1
0930-1045	Welcome and keynote panel discussion Disaster research and innovation at a time of global uncertainty - stakeholder perspectives	Conference room
1045-1115	Coffee and tea
1115-1245	How can a 'supporting self-recovery approach' to humanitarian assistance realise safer and healthier homes after disaster?	Conference room
	Future visioning for risk resilience and development	Training and skills room
1245-1330	Lunch and posters
1330-1500	Whose recovery? Recognising and supporting the voices of disaster-affected people	Conference room
	Innovative research to build capacity of East African communities to natural hazard	Training and skills room
1530-1700	UKADR ECR Network session and possible side events
1700-1800	UKADR Annual General Meeting	Conference room
1900-	Evening drinks reception at ECCI – everyone welcome!
Day 2
0900-0930	Welcome and keynote address Voices in a Pandemic (VIP-CLEAR): using deep mapping to explore children's changing perceptions and experiences during COVID-19 'recovery' – Prof Lindsey McEwen	Conference room
0930-1100	Multi-hazard risk management approaches across disaster risk management and climate change adaptation	Conference room
	Innovative governance mechanisms for co-produced risk management and climate change adaptation	Training and skills room
1100-1115	Coffee and tea
1115-1245	Managing global uncertainty with effective warnings	Conference room
	Bridging Disaster Risk Reduction and Climate Change Adaptation for Resilience	Training and skills room
1245-1330	Lunch and posters
1330-1500	The use of citizen science to understand societal responses and needs to natural hazard threats	Conference room
	Health and DRR: lessons from COVID, mental health and disaster risk reduction research	Training and skills room
1500-1515	Break
1515-1630	Conference reflections with cheese and wine
1630	Close	